The diagram illustrates the formation of syllables starting with the letter 'r'. A central box containing the letter 'r' has five arrows pointing to boxes containing the vowels 'a', 'e', 'i', 'o', and 'u'. From each of these vowel boxes, an arrow points to an empty rectangular box. To the right of each empty box is a corresponding pictogram: a mouse for 'a', a ruler for 'e', a river for 'i', a red splash for 'o', and a bandage for 'u'.
